PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 2074 is to assist tribal governments in the management of buffalo and buffalo habitat and the reestablishment of buffalo on Indian land.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Before European colonization, the American buffalo roamed freely across the continent, and its population once numbered upwards of 60 million. Historically, the herds served as reliable sources of food, shelter, clothing, and economic mobility for Indigenous peoples and remain to this day of great spiritual importance to many Native communities. However, after generations of grazing competition from introduced populations of horses and cattle, buffalo herds began to face immense ecological pressure by the start of the 19th century. Combined with the U.S. Army's efforts to debilitate the Great Plains' Native nations by exterminating their primary source of sustenance, by 1900, only a few hundred buffalo were left in the wild.

Over the past few decades, tribal nations have actively worked toward rehabilitation of the American buffalo population on their lands by participating in inter-tribal alliances such as the Inter-Tribal Buffalo Council (ITBC). ITBC was formed in 1990 to assist tribal nations with buffalo reintroduction, and in 1991, the Council received appropriated funding. Today, ITBC is classified as a federally chartered Indian Organization under Section 17 of the Indian Reorganization Act and maintains a membership of 61 different tribal nations.

H.R. 2074 will build upon this existing initiative by establishing a permanent program within the Department of the Interior (DOI) to assist tribal nations in developing and maintaining buffalo herds on their lands. Through this program, DOI will award grants to and enter into contractual agreements with tribal nations that plan to implement buffalo restoration programs and other commercial activities related to buffalo conservation. In addition, the program will enable the transportation of surplus buffalo from federal lands to tribal lands.

H.R. 2074 is supported by ITBC's 61 member tribes, the National Parks Conservation Association, the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI), the American Bison Society, the National Bison Association, the Wildlife Conservation Society, and the World Wildlife Fund.
